

Cricket4London Logo Competition - Significant terms and conditions:

The competition organiser is the Cricket4London consortium, comprising the Kent, Essex, Surrey and Middlesex County Cricket Clubs. All submissions will be subject to the general terms and conditions, and privacy policy, of the county the entry is submitted to. These terms and policies can be found on the county cricket club's website.

Entry is free with a closing date of 6th Feb 2023. Individuals and institutions are not limited to a number of entries.

The winners will be selected by the judging panel as detailed in the attached brief; members of the panel represent the 4 clubs along with independent advisors who are competent to judge such a competition. A full list of names is available upon request.

Prizes are detailed in the attached brief, and the decision of the judging panel will be final. Given the unique nature of these prizes there will not be a reasonable equivalent alternative available.

Winners will be informed by email.

Where a winner is under the age of 18, or over the age of 18 and considered an adult at risk, additional safeguarding measures will be put in place through the appropriate county's safeguarding team to support the safety and wellbeing of the individual. For more information on this, please contact the county to discuss this. Middlesex Cricket Safeguarding statement can be found at:

<https://www.middlesexccc.com/page/safeguarding-our-policy>

In the event that your logo design is selected as the winning entry, by entering you hereby agree to assign, by way of future assignment, the full copyright and any other intellectual property rights in the winning logo design to Cricket4London consortium in consideration for the prize.